Education Workshops for 11-18 year olds

What teachers say;

The education team were brilliant. They engaged our young people through activities and thought-provoking discussions. Even our boys were highly engaged...the team's knowledge meant they learnt so much.

Without a doubt we want these sessions repeated on a rolling programme each year.

It supported our topic of study excellently.

PSHE / RSE / RE Curriculum

We will work hard to make sure that our fun, interactive workshops fit effectively into your curriculum delivery, to enrich students' learning and understanding of these important topics.

About Us

Our education work launched in 2014, with one educator delivering workshops to 380 pupils. Since then, the work has grown. We currently deliver workshops to around 1,500 pupils annually in a variety of educational settings in and around Chichester.

What pupils say;

I wanted the session to be longer. I found the myths and facts about sex and relationships quiz and the discussions about the relationship timeline the most helpful.

I found it interesting that less people under 16 are having sex than what peer pressure would have you believe.
